Programme Overview:

Are you minding your business? Have you really positioned it for long-term profitability? This workshop will provide you with an understanding of the true meaning of corporate governance, its scope, significant benefits and consequences of not getting it right. There is no one size fits all when it comes to corporate governance. This seminar will equip you with the tools, frameworks and resources to re-evaluate corporate governance in your business, identify the gaps and make changes.

Programme Content:

- The context, evolution and meaning of Corporate Governance
- The Director and the Law - Legal and Regulatory Framework
- Who are the directors? Duties and liabilities.
- The Board's role in Corporate Governance
- Boundary tensions – the different roles of Direction, Management and Ownership
- Board Structure and composition factors
- Effective Boards – what do they do and what do they look like?
- Corporate Governance Codes – International influences
- Dos and Dons as a Director – how to protect yourself
- Effective Board Meetings and Board evaluation – why Boards fail
- Stories from the frontline - Director Dilemmas and corporate governance failures

Approach:

The programme aims to be interactive, combining theory with practical examples and providing plenty opportunity to share and discuss challenges and issues of relevance to your business.
